

80వ స్వాతంత్ర దినోత్సవ
శుభాకాంక్షలు

Har Ghar
Tiranga

Dedicated to the Spirit of Vande Mataram

15 August 2026

Let us join the national movement to honour the freedom fighters whose courage & sacrifice shaped India's freedom

THE TIRANGA IS OUR PRIDE, THE IDENTITY OF EVERY INDIAN.

Independence Day 2026 at Narayana Medical Institutions, Nellore

On 15th August 2026, Narayana Medical College, Nellore, celebrated the 80th Independence Day of India with patriotic fervour, discipline, and a strong spirit of unity and national pride. The celebrations brought together management personnel, administrators, faculty members, and students of Narayana Medical Institutions, with nearly 400 participants joining the celebrations.

The programme was conducted under the guidance of Dr. P. Sreenivasulu Reddy, Dean, Narayana Medical College & Hospital, and was hosted by Dr. D. M. Karthik, NSS Programme Officer, Narayana Medical College. The programme was well designed and coordinated by Mr. Z. Selvi Babu, Physical Director, along with Mr A Chandra Sekhar Reddy, Head – PR & Marketing.

The celebrations reflected the spirit of Viksit Bharat @2047, the national vision of building a developed, self-reliant, inclusive, and progressive India by the centenary of Independence.

Sequence of Events

- Guard of Honour: The programme commenced with the Dean, Dr. P. Sreenivasulu Reddy, receiving the Guard of Honour.
- March Past: This was followed by a disciplined and spirited march past by students of Narayana Medical Institutions.
- Vande Mataram: The patriotic spirit of the gathering was further strengthened with a rendition of Vande Mataram.
- Flag Unfurling & National Anthem: The National Flag was unfurled by Dr P .Sreenivasulu Reddy , Dean followed by the singing of the National Anthem, symbolising the nation's unity, sovereignty, and pride.
- Patriotic Musical Tribute: A special patriotic song was presented by Mr. B .Parandhamiah of Narayana Dental College, paying tribute to the sacrifices of the nation's freedom fighters and armed forces.

- Address by the Dean: Dr. P. Sreenivasulu Reddy, Dean, Narayana Medical College, addressed the gathering and highlighted the values of freedom, unity, discipline, responsibility, and service to the nation. He also emphasised the role of students and young professionals in contributing towards the vision of Viksit Bharat @2047.
- Vote of Thanks & Conclusion: The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the management, dignitaries, faculty members, staff, students, and all members of the Narayana Medical Institutions for their wholehearted participation and support.

The celebration served as a meaningful expression of patriotism, unity, discipline, and commitment to national service, bringing together the entire Narayana Medical Institutions community in the spirit of the 80th Independence Day and the collective vision of a Viksit Bharat by 2047.

