

NARAYANA MEDICAL COLLEGE CELEBRATES WHITE COAT CEREMONY AND AARAMBH – FRESHERS' DAY

Nellore: Narayana Medical College celebrated White Coat Ceremony and AARAMBH – Freshers' Day in a grand manner, welcoming the newly admitted MBBS students and marking the beginning of their medical journey.

The programme was conducted under the esteemed guidance of Dr. P. Sreenivasulu Reddy, Dean, Narayana Medical College & Hospital, and coordinated by Dr. D. M. Karthik, NSS Programme Officer.

DISTINGUISHED DIGNITARIES

1. Dr. P. Sreenivasulu Reddy – Dean, Narayana Medical College & Hospital.
2. Dr. Biju Ravindran – Coordinator, Narayana Medical Institutions.
3. Dr. R. Viswakumar – Vice Principal, Narayana Medical College.
4. Dr. R. Harish – Additional Medical Superintendent, NMCH.
5. Dr. Ashalatha – HOD, Department of Anatomy.
6. Dr. B. V. Uma – HOD, Department of Physiology.

The ceremony commenced with an invocation and prayer song, followed by the donning of white coats, symbolising the students' entry into the noble medical profession. Senior students assisted the freshers in wearing their white coats, reflecting mentorship and professional camaraderie. The occasion also featured the administration of the Medical Oath, emphasising medical ethics, compassion, integrity, and commitment to patient care.

The celebrations continued with AARAMBH – Freshers' Day, featuring vibrant cultural performances that showcased the talents and enthusiasm of the students. The event provided an opportunity for the freshers to interact with their seniors, build friendships, and become part of the Narayana Medical College family.

The celebration beautifully combined professional commitment, cultural expression, and new beginnings, reinforcing the institution's commitment to academic excellence, ethical medical practice, and the holistic development of future doctors.
