REPORT ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM FROM 26.02.2026 TO 28.02.2026

Topic: "AI in Mental Health Education: Ethical Implications in Nursing"

The Faculty Development Program on "AI in Mental Health Education: Ethical Implications in Nursing" was successfully organized by Narayana College of Nursing, Nellore from 26.02.2026 to 28.02.2026 in the Smart Classroom. The program aimed to enhance faculty knowledge regarding the role of artificial intelligence in mental health education and to discuss ethical considerations in nursing practice. The program began with a warm and respectful inauguration. The event started with a prayer song, invoking blessings for the successful conduct of the program. This was followed by a welcome song, creating a pleasant and positive atmosphere for the gathering. The dignitaries were then invited onto the stage for the ceremonial lamp lighting, symbolizing the removal of darkness and the spread of knowledge. The lamp was lit by the Chief Guest, Dr. B. Vanaja Kumari, Principal and faculty members. The lighting of the lamp marked the formal commencement of the program. Following this, the organizing team delivered the welcome address, extending a cordial welcome to the resource person Dr. K. V. Nagendra, respected faculty members and all participants. The address highlighted the importance of integrating modern technologies like artificial intelligence into mental health education while maintaining strong ethical standards in nursing practice.

During the sessions, valuable insights were shared regarding the application of AI in healthcare education, innovative teaching methods, and ethical responsibilities of nursing professionals. The resource person explained how AI can support diagnosis, patient monitoring, and mental health interventions while emphasizing the importance of human compassion in nursing care. Faculty members actively participated in discussions and gained new perspectives on the integration of technology in nursing education. The sessions were informative, interactive, and beneficial for academic and professional development.
