DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING

REPORT ON WORLD POPULATION DAY

Date: 11.07.2026

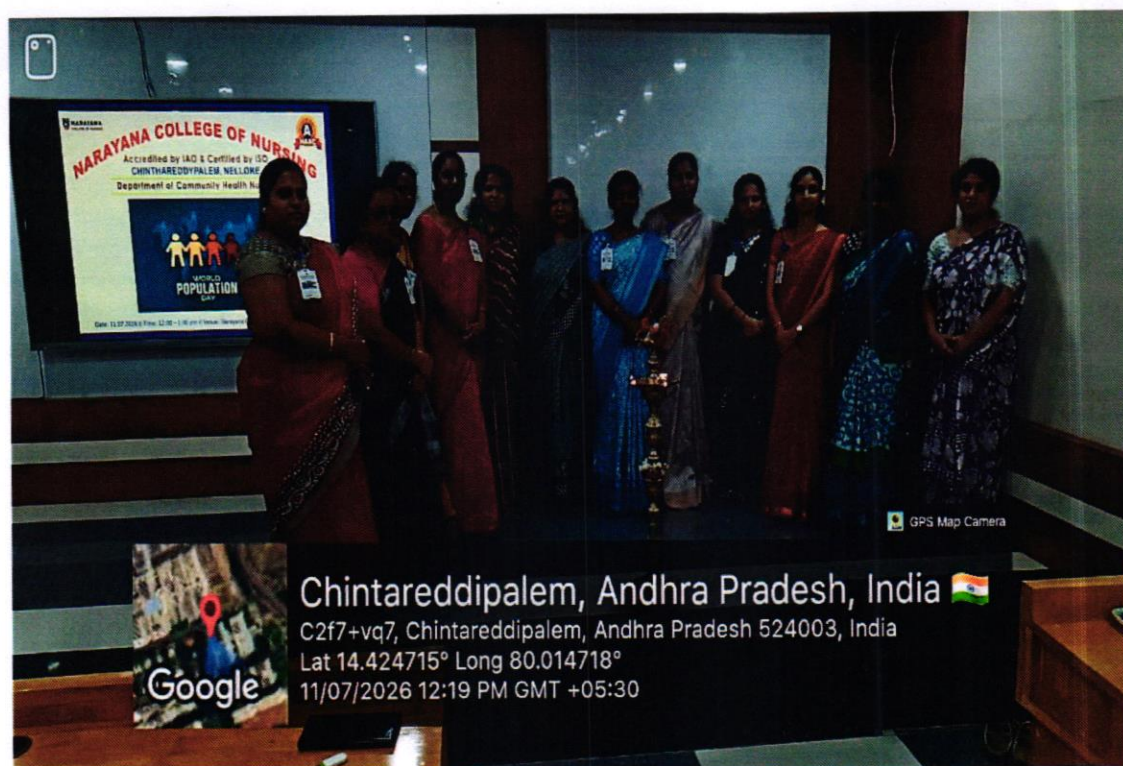

Time: 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM

Narayana College of Nursing, NSS Unit in collaboration with the Department of Community Health Nursing, organized an event to commemorate World Population Day. This year's official theme was "Realizing the hopes and aspirations of young people – today and for the future." To mark the occasion, an essay writing competition was conducted, in which 31 students actively participated.

The event commenced with a warm welcome speech by the NSS Programme Officer, Mrs. Suchithra, who highlighted the significance of World Population Day and its direct relevance to rural health challenges. Following this, Mrs. V. Pratima, Associate Professor from the Department of Community Health Nursing, delivered an insightful presentation. Her address covered critical themes including family planning, maternal and child health, and the profound impact of population growth on healthcare infrastructure in rural sectors.

Following the presentation, prizes were distributed to the winners of the essay writing competition to honor their exceptional insights and writing skills. Ms. 1st Prize, Ms. Second prize, Ms. 3rd prize and Consolation prizes were given to all participants.

The program successfully concluded with refreshments provided to all volunteers and participants, fostering a strong sense of camaraderie and mutual appreciation. The event wrapped up with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Shiny Swarupa.
