☐ Objective

To ensure a safe, respectful, and harassment-free academic and workplace environment for all female students, staff, and faculty; to prevent sexual harassment; and to provide an effective mechanism for complaint redressal in a fair, confidential, and timely manner.

☒ Roles and Responsibilities

1. Prevention of Sexual Harassment

- Create awareness about sexual harassment, gender sensitivity, and respectful conduct on campus.
- Display ICC information, contact details, and complaint procedures at prominent locations.
- Conduct preventive programs to foster a safe and gender-just environment.

2. Ensure Non-Discrimination

- Prevent any form of gender-based discrimination or misconduct.
- Monitor and address complaints related to harassment, intimidation, or offensive behavior.

3. Complaint Redressal Mechanism

- Establish a transparent, confidential, and accessible system to receive complaints.
- Conduct inquiries as per due procedure, ensuring fairness to both complainant and respondent.
- Recommend corrective, disciplinary, or preventive actions to the authorities.

4. Conduct Awareness Programs

Organize regular workshops, training, and sensitization programs on:

- Sexual harassment laws and UGC regulations
- Gender sensitization
