REPORT ON

MAPMY ACCESS AND LIBRARY E-RESOURCES ORIENTATION PROGRAM

A MAPMY Access and Library e-Resources Orientation Program was conducted on 23 January 2026 at the Narayana College of Nursing Library for the students of Narayana College of Nursing.

The objective of the program was to familiarize students with MAPMY access services and the wide range of library e-resources, including e-journals, e-books, online databases, institutional repositories, and other subscribed digital learning platforms, and to enhance their ability to effectively utilize these resources for academic and research purposes.

The program was organized and conducted by the Library Team of Narayana College of Nursing. A detailed orientation was provided regarding user registration, login procedures, creation of personal user IDs and passwords, and navigation of the MAPMY platform and library e-resource portals. A live demonstration was given to show step-by-step access to digital resources from both on-campus and off-campus locations.

Students actively participated in the session and clarified their queries related to accessing e-resources, searching techniques, downloading full-text articles, and troubleshooting common access issues. The session helped students understand the importance of utilizing electronic resources to support classroom learning, assignments, clinical practice, and research activities.

The program was well received by the participants and successfully achieved its objectives of enhancing awareness and promoting effective utilization of MAPMY access and library e-resources.

Overall, the MAPMY Access and Library e-Resources Orientation Program was a great success.

LIBRARY USER ORIENTATION PROGRAM ON REMOTE ACCESS FACILITIES

A Library User Orientation Program on Remote Access Facilities was conducted on 04 March 2025 at the Narayana College of Nursing Library for all fresh batch students of B.Sc. Nursing, Post Basic B.Sc. Nursing (P.B.B.Sc.), and M.Sc. Nursing.

The objective of the program was to familiarize students with the library's digital and remote access services, including DELNET, University Digital Library, Library Management System (LMS), e-journals, e-books, and other subscribed online databases, and to enhance their ability to effectively utilize these resources for academic and research purposes.

The program was organized and conducted by Mrs. Pratima Vuyyuru, Librarian Committee Member, and Ms. Sruthy, Librarian In-Charge. A comprehensive orientation was provided on user registration, login procedures, creation of personal user IDs and passwords, and navigation of various digital platforms. A live demonstration was given to show step-by-step access to online catalogues, digital repositories, and full-text resources from both on-campus and off-campus locations.

Students actively participated in the session and clarified their queries related to searching techniques, availability of resources, and troubleshooting common access issues. The program enabled students to understand the importance of digital library resources in supporting learning, assignments, evidence-based practice, and research activities.

The program was well received by the participants and successfully met its objectives of enhancing awareness and promoting optimal utilization of library remote access services. Overall, the Library User Orientation Program on Remote Access Facilities was a great success.
