

Hostels

A home away from home, the hostels at NECG is more than four walls and a roof. They have been designed to provide a comfortable, safe, inclusive and secure living even as they provide opportunities to form lasting friendships and ease the transition from home to college. Residential staff is always available to support the students from different backgrounds to promote community. Living on campus provides students with opportunities to:

- Connect with a diverse population of people
- Develop stronger interpersonal and communication skills
- Engage in campus leadership, organizations and activities
- Establish relationship with faculty and staff members

Hostel review committee meetings are conducted once in 15 days by the hostel administrators to address students' queries, requirements and to keep them updated on upgradation of services and events. Students are also given the privilege to give suggestions to improve the hostel facilities.

Dining

Healthy, wholesome food and a variety of dining options are available to the hostel students. Given the great diversity of tastes and cultures, students have access to multi-cuisine catering services that serve to suit vegetarian, non-vegetarian, and international palates.

Students can also choose and order from a limited list of special dishes available on prior registration at the restaurant-style mess. Dining areas are open as early as 7:00 AM with night canteens available from 10:30 PM to 12:30 AM. The kitchens are hygienically operated and adhere to the prescribed food standards. A balanced menu is prepared every month by the Student Mess and Menu Committee in consultation with the hostel administrators.

For those who want to try out different cuisines, a variety of hygienic food facilities are available on campus. A popular eating spot is the 600 square meters Food Court that serves delicious non-vegetarian and vegetarian food at reasonable prices. Fast food outlets are also attached to both the Men's and Women's Hostels.
